Christ’s Hope International

Africa Programme Director

Job Description

1. Introduction

Christ’s Hope International (CHI) is a Christian, non-profit charity which cares primarily for orphaned and vulnerable children living in extreme poverty. The work in Africa is supported by fundraising in the United States and five European countries. The primary focus of the ministry is to support children’s physical, mental, social and spiritual well-being through Christian, after-school care programmes.

The Program Director should be an outstanding Christian leader and manager who can enable the organization to achieve successful development, growth and implementation of the programme provided for children aged 4-19 in Africa and ensure sustainable, high-quality ministry through an open, participative and consultative approach to decision-making.

Therefore, the Program Director must be an enthusiastic and committed Christian capable of supporting the organization in achieving our mission and strategic development. Highly developed understanding and skills in programming, MER, and leadership are required, alongside an ability to work successfully with a wide range of people within multicultural environments.

Christ’s Hope International and the International Board are uncompromisingly biblical and unashamedly Christian; we therefore bring the life-changing message of Jesus Christ and encourage discipleship within our ministry. The Program & MER Director should share our faith and vision for caring for vulnerable young people affected by extreme poverty and HIV/AIDS in Africa.

The Program Director is primarily focused upon and responsible for all aspects of the ministry programme of CHI in African ministry countries. The Program & MER Director is responsible and reports to the International Director through the Africa Team Leader (ATL).

The Program Director position is a critical member of the international leadership team of CHI and is expected to share in that the development of vision, mission, strategy and business planning the Program Director within the International Office team. This involves a widespread consultative and participative decision-making process involving all stakeholders within the organization.
2. Job Summary

The Program Director leads and manages the development, implementation and quality of the programme offered to children as part of the ministry of CHI in Africa. In partnership with the senior leadership team in the International Office and the International Board, the Programme Director is responsible for the success of CHI within Africa and helps to assure CHI’s relevance to the community, the accomplishment of our vision and mission, and the accountability of CHI to all stakeholders.

* As a global organization, the word Programme (British) and Program (US) are used interchangeably.
