At Kids Alive International we believe every child is a priority to God, and far too many are overlooked, unheard, exploited, and threatened. Our mission is the call of Isaiah 1:17: to serve these children by constantly learning better ways to meet their needs, earnestly seeking justice for them, empowering them for a healthy future, and advocating for community change. We desire for every child we serve to:

- Enjoy a vibrant, life-changing relationship with God
- Experience emotional and physical well-being
- Be equipped for a life of independence and service
- Live life in family and community, free of fear and violence

Our recent relocation from Valparaiso, Indiana to Metro Atlanta provides us with an opportunity to refresh our faith community relationships and vision. We’re adding new staff members who demonstrate emotional and spiritual maturity, flexibility, self-motivation, curiosity, and collaboration.

We are seeking a Donor Communications Manager to provide leadership in the implementation of our donor communication strategy. Of crucial importance is the candidate’s ability to craft compelling stories of Kids Alive program impact through progressive and interactive engagement avenues. Through this narrative, they will uphold the dignity of the children we serve, while helping move the readers’ hearts and minds to the urgent opportunities to participate. They will also be versatile enough to tailor content for impacting a diverse range of partners and stakeholders from different generations, Christian traditions, cultures, and worldviews.

The Donor Communications Manager will be an experienced writer who develops material for a variety of products, both digital and print, both external and internal. They will promote message consistency by providing strategic input, direction, guidelines, coaching, and feedback to the communications efforts of various teams in the US and in our program countries. The successful manager will inspire individuals and organizations to step forward and invest in Kids Alive.

As our Donor Communications Manager, you will:

- Create and/or provide support on digital and print collateral, templates, and presentations
- Provide layout and graphic design direction
- Effectively interview staff in our countries of service to elicit the stories, logic, and rhetorical approach to be used in products that will help accomplish the country team’s goals
- Collaborate with coworkers on grant proposals, program impact narratives and grant reports
- Support our executive team by ghostwriting for external communications and assisting with strategic global internal communications
- Collaborate with, and sometimes oversee, the work of external fundraising consultants and writers

A successful Donor Communications Manager will also bring:

- A bachelor’s degree, preferably in applicable field
- 5+ years of experience writing for diverse Christian cultures, worldviews, generations, and traditions
- Extensive travel and volunteer experiences
- Writing for successful resource development campaigns and grants
- Project management experience
- Demonstrated professional development in the sector and role
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office
- High interpersonal awareness and emotional intelligence
- High degree of accuracy, organization, and critical thinking
- Innovation, self-motivation, tact, and ability to keep confidentiality when appropriate
- Willingness and ability to travel (up to 6 weeks each year)
Full vaccination against COVID-19
Some of these preferred skills and experience:
  o Spanish and/or French language skills
  o Experience with adjacent areas of expertise as utilized in non-profit resource development, such as digital, print, or social media production, photography, or videography

At Kids Alive International, it is important to have a committed personal Christian faith in Jesus Christ and a heart for serving children and families. We seek candidates with alignment to the Bible, Christian theology, faith, and practice, as well as our organization's mission, vision, and core values. Read more about our core beliefs here: www.kidsalive.org/meet-kids-alive/about/what-we-believe/.

Kids Alive offers competitive pay and benefits including 403B with employer contribution, great health and dental insurance from day one, and an FSA. If you have the skills and experience described here and are looking for a challenging but rewarding work experience, we want to hear from you. You will be asked to upload a cover letter or resume. The application must be completed all at once. We hope it will not take more than 30 minutes of your time.

A little more about us:
Our organizational culture is led by what we believe about identity. Regardless of our roles in Kids Alive, we believe that in Christ we are all:

- God’s Children: We are intrinsically loved by the Father, and we should reflect His love in thought, word, and action. (John 1:12)
- Clean: God is faithful and just to take away our shame and forgive us as we admit our failings, forgive each other, and grow to be more like Jesus. (1 John 1:9)
- Chosen for a Purpose: We are called to be God's ambassadors as we represent Him in our homes, schools, work, and communities. (John 15:16)
- Powerful: When we are united in honor, respect, love, and reliance on God, we can do all things He calls us to do. (Romans 12:10, Philippians 4:13)
- Masterpieces: We are the artwork of God, created to do marvelous works that He prepared us to do. (Ephesians 2:10)

In light of this, we desire to embody these values in our work and relationships with each other and the children and families we serve: faith, integrity, understanding, self-control, perseverance, devotion to God, mutual kindness, and love.
