How to Help Child Welfare Professionals in your Community

VIDEO DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1

What experiences have you had with child welfare workers in the past? After viewing this FMU session, how would you have approached or treated them differently?

2

Dr. Ford discussed the burden that child welfare workers carry with them as they handle case after case. Many of these workers are hurting and wounded. If you had their job, what kinds of things do you think you would most need?

3

A few social workers shared what they received from a local church -- gum, a bottle of water, and gift cards. Why do you think those small gifts meant so much to them? How did their stories inform how you might approach showing appreciation to workers in your community?

4

Mandy Litzke's social worker fought and advocated for Mandy. If Mrs. B had not fought for Mandy, how might that have affected her long-term? What role does community support play in a worker's ability to fight well for kids?

5

Romans 12:10 says "Love each other with genuine affection and take delight in honoring each other." How does this verse impact our approach to child welfare workers?
